Land Use Networking Luncheon

Location: Inner City Christian Federation
920 Cherry SE, Grand Rapids 49506

$30 per person for United Growth members
$40 per person for non-members

ICCF's headquarters on Cherry Street., formerly the D. A. Blodgett Home for Children.

The building was largely vacant for 30 years and was scheduled for demolition before ICCF purchased the site for restoration and use. It is now fully restored and LEED certified—a model for historic preservation and sustainability.

- ◆ Featuring County Commissioner Jim Talen speaking on both the Lancaster County, PA and Kent County, MI farmland preservation programs
- ◆ Sign up to give a 3 minute update on your organization's work.
- ◆ Jonathan Bradford will give an overview of ICCF's work to rehab homes and prevent foreclosure. An optional tour of the LEED certified ICCF building will be offered at 1:30 PM.
- ◆ Dennis Heffron, owner of Heffron Farms and Kent County Agricultural Preservation Board Chairperson, will receive the 2009 Land Use Stewardship Award.
